Employee Application Telecommunicator

Lewis-Gilmer E-911
201 Orchard Street, Weston, WV 26452

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

The Telecommunicators main objective and duties are to receive requests for help and/or assistance, no matter how slight or major the request and to determine which agency or agencies shall be directed to the scene. It must be realized that any and/or the entire request received have the possibility of being life threatening.

- Have the ability to express thoughts concisely and meaningfully with an effective speaking voice, good diction, good telephone technique, and in writing when necessary.
- Have the ability to deal tactfully, courteously and skillfully with the human relation aspect and with other problems which may arise involving communications center personnel, public safety agency personnel, and the general public.
- Have the ability to think and act quickly and effectively in emergency situations, and when necessary, handle several communications simultaneously; yet function with accuracy, speed and emotional self-control.
- Have the ability to work in a tobacco free environment, in close quarters, with infrequent breaks and sometimes long, strenuous hours.

The position for which you are about to apply will expose you to information that must, by requirement of law, be kept strictly confidential. For this reason, for you to be considered for the position, you must be willing to submit to rigid testing, thorough interview, and a complete background investigation.

Attached to this application is a Privacy Act Statement. You are required to read and sign the statement to insure further consideration of you application.

All Sections of this application, along with a submitted resume, must be returned to the 911 Center, no later than the posted closing.

LEWIS-GILMER E-911
WORKING CONDITIONS STATEMENT

The Lewis-Gilmer E-911 Director understands that the position of Telecommunicator requires great sacrifice of the person assigned to the position. It is this understanding which results in the effort to make working conditions within Lewis County Dispatch as pleasant as humanly possible while still achieving the goals of the Lewis-Gilmer E-911 Center.

The work of a 911 Telecommunicator is considered extremely stressful. The nature of the work in combination with working conditions has the potential to be disruptive of the home environment. Applicants must understand and be willing and able to work under the following conditions:

- Must be willing to work any schedule which has been deemed advantageous to the Lewis-Gilmer E-911 Center. This can include a rotating shift schedule.
- Must be willing to rotate days off if deemed advantageous to the Lewis-Gilmer E-911 Center.
- Must be willing to work overtime, on short notice, and on regularly scheduled days off as deemed advantageous to the Lewis-Gilmer E-911 Center.
- Must understand that the scheduling requirements of the position take priority over controllable personal commitments.
- Must be willing to comply fully with all written and verbal instructions.
- Must be willing to come to work even in the worst of weather, as that is usually when we need everyone to provide services.
- Must be willing and able to respond to occasional short notice call-out requests on/off duty time when emergencies arise, 24 hrs a day.
- Requirement of having access to a phone, cell phone, electronic device and/or willing to carry and monitor a pager for immediate notification if the 911 Center needs you in case and emergency arises and/or someone calls off.
- Provide the Center with numbers to contact you- home, cell, and/or other, 24 hrs a day.
- Must have dependable transportation.

Once again, every effort will be made to ensure that an employee of the Lewis-Gilmer E-911 Center is treated with dignity, respect and understanding. The purpose of this form is to insure that you, the applicant, understand the inherent problems associated with working in the Communications Center. You are urged to carefully consider your willingness to work under the aforementioned conditions.

I, the undersigned, understand the working conditions within the Communications Center as outlined above and wish to be considered for the position with the realization that the conditions are not likely to change. I have also read the job information available on the website. www.lewis-gilmere-911.com.
